

AFRICAN

DEVELOPMENT FORUM

DRIED UP DROWNED OUT!

CLIMATE CHANGE SUMMIT

FACING THE REALITY OF AFRICA'S CHANGING CLIMATE

Africa is least responsible for climate change yet is hardest to be hit. The Dried Up Drowned Out summit will challenge the double injustice of our time. Equip delegates to play their role in creating eco friendly congregations. Encourage world leaders to secure a fairer global climate deal for Africa.

Date Thursday 21 October 2010

Location Bloomsbury Central Baptist Church
235 Shaftsbury Avenue, London WC2H 8EP

Doors open 9:30am - 4pm

Cost £10 per person

Speakers include:

Dr Robert Beckford
Theologian, author and broadcaster

Dionne Gravesande
Head of churches and young people at Christian Aid

Dave Bookless
Director for theology, churches and sustainable communities and cofounder of Arocha

Rev Chris Andre-Watson
BMS World Mission
Regional Co-ordinator

Babatope Akinwande
Tearfund country representative for Ivory Coast

Bishop Wilton Powell
OBE and National Overseer of the Church of God of Prophecy

www.africandevlopmentforum.org/events.html